ELLIS

CUTRIGHT

OUR GUIDING STAR

Students at Twin Lakes have truly been inspired by the warm counseling of Ellis Cutright. He has a unique ability to motivate all who come in contact with him. His advice to the "Budding Stars" at Twin Lakes is:

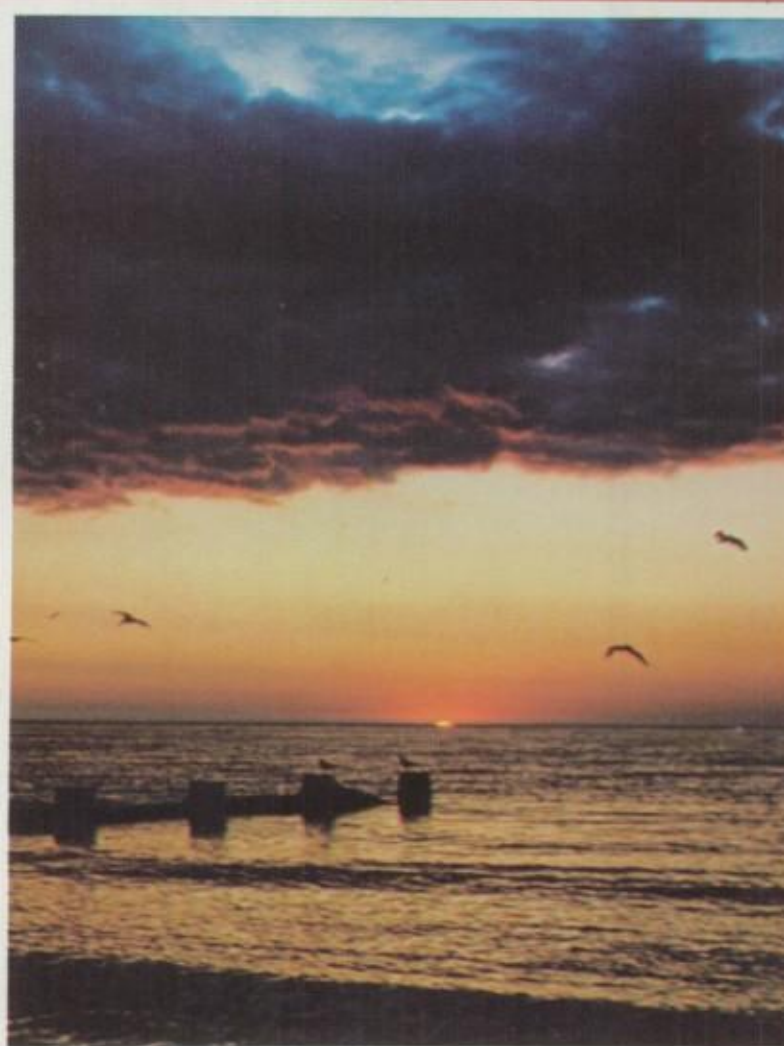

Take time out to work—it is the price of success
Take time out to think—it is the source of power
Take time out to play—it is the secret of youth
Take time out to read—it is the foundation of knowledge
Take time out to enjoy friends—it is the source of happiness
Take time out to dream—it hitches the soul to stars.

We, the administration, faculty, staff, and student body, salute our beloved Ellis Cutright, and wish that he will continue to hitch his chariot to the stars.

REACH FOR THE STARS

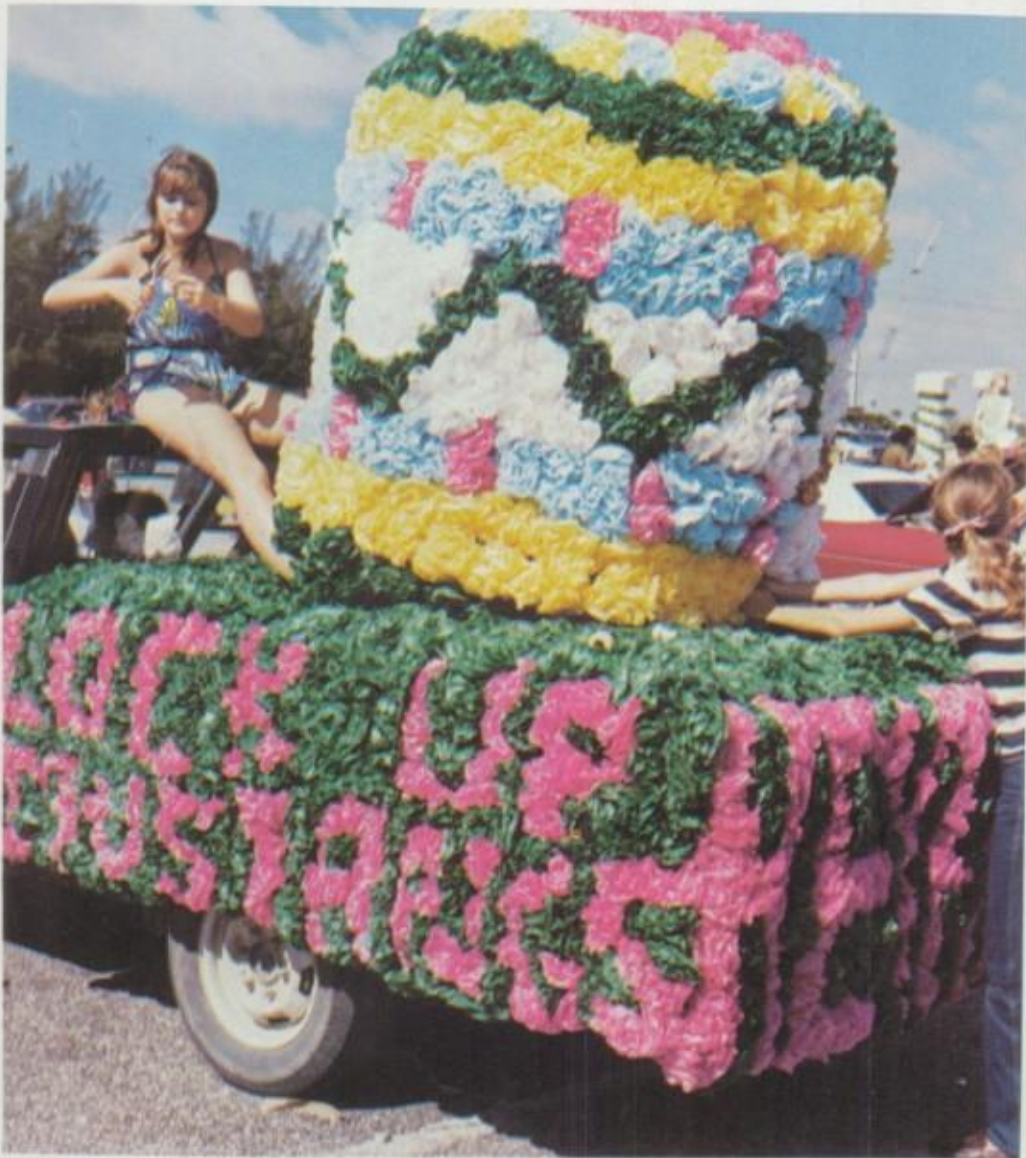

As the second decade begins and the Rams unite, the spirit of Twin Lakes emanates. Students, teachers, and administrators prove to be one, big, happy family. Ram pride reigns in their hearts; dignity and self respect sparkle, and together they begin to REACH FOR THE STARS.

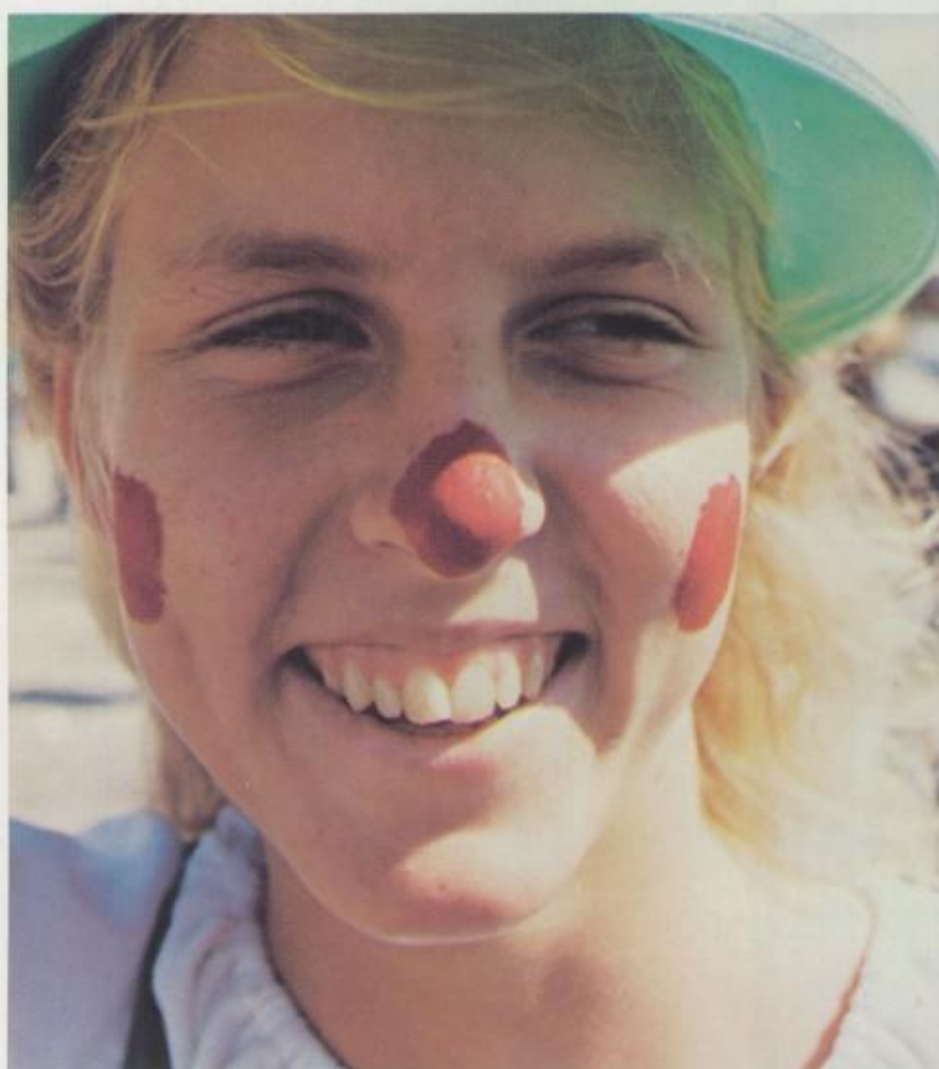

1. The spirited freshmen
2. Ms. M. King
3. Marie Brand & Carlos Bonlilla
4. Lisa Boyles
5. Dr. N. Shearin
6. Tim Hinkle & Vince Campi

There in the stars are the highest aspirations . . . look up and see their beauty; believe in them, and follow where they lead.

The stars you chart can lead to joy, fulfillment, and happiness, or they can lead to sorrow, disappointment, and destruction.

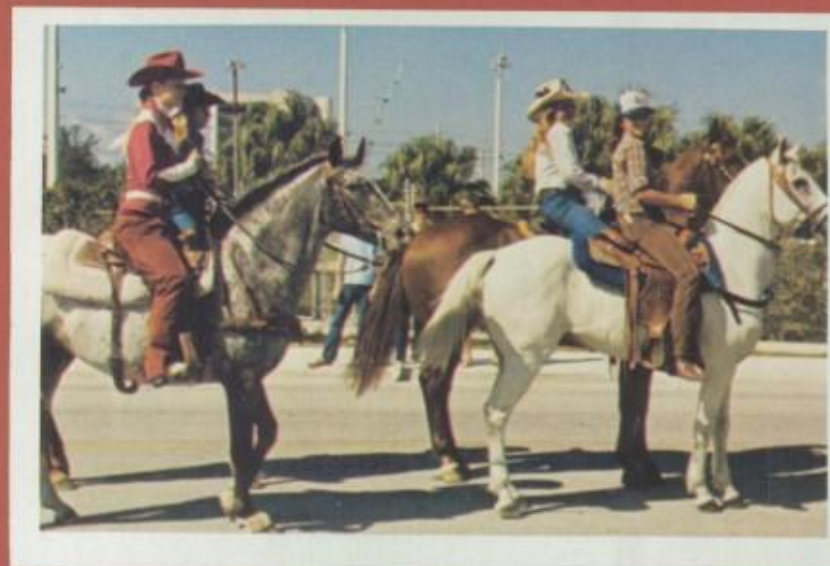

Wherever the stars lead, follow with high hopes and great anticipation. Let them be like a beacon and guide you through the years—let them be like a torch and burn away your fears.

1. Ms. Milask
2. Belinda Blunt
3. Bridget Wilburn
4. 1982 Varsity Cheerleaders
5. Mike Pittman
6. Laura DeRochemont
7. Dr. N. Shearin, John Kennedy, & Bonnie Dunaway

Memories of yesterday are good to behold, but the mysteries of today must unfold. Unfold into the stars and their beautiful rays—unfold into challenges the rest of your days. Challenges of search and discovery too—challenges that depend on the pilot, YOU. Aim high; set your goal to the sky . . . where you go will be forever—REACH FOR THE STARS.

We're The Class of 1982

We're the class of '82
We were here to see what we could do.
Thanks to all along the way
Who helped us see this glorious day.
Thanks for all that you have done,
To help this moment finally come.

And on that bright June day,
The class of '82 will say . . .
While tassels blowing in the wind,
Good-bye teachers; Good-bye friends.

We'll be full of tears and smiles;
But they'll only last for a while.
For then we'll be on our way,
With memories of Twin Lakes and this special day.

Seniors Salute Mr. Campbell.

Four years ago we came together as a class of apprehensive youths onto a campus that seemed then to be overwhelming.

Yet, in spite of the strange faces and surroundings, one man made each of us feel at home. With endless patience and understanding, Chester Campbell helped us to find our places at a time when we really needed to belong.

He has smiled through countless schedule changes, medical records, college applications, and any other problems that we have bombarded him with.

Over these past four years, Mr. Campbell has put so much of his life into our lives that words alone will never be able to express our strong feelings of appreciation.

We thank you for all the time and genuine caring that you have placed upon us, Mr. Campbell—we love you!

The Rams' Chief

Our principal, Dr. Norman Shearin, is a man of talent and vision. He is noted for his initiative to instill within the students a sense of pride for their school, their home, and their community. His main objective is to create a program that will keep every student in class.

Dr. Shearin plays a vital role, not only in expanding the curriculum and establishing outstanding guidelines for school operation, but also in developing a broader system of student activities and athletic events.

Our principal guides and encourages students individually and as a whole student body. He is tolerant of their views and willing to help them in difficult situations. Dr. Shearin is very proud of Twin Lakes—he believes that he has the best student body and staff in the state. Twin Lakes is fortunate to have him as "The Rams' Chief".

Dr. Shearin takes time out for a picture.

Our principal presents flowers to queen.

Dr. Shearin reviews his schedule.

Co-Pilots

Our co-pilots are responsible for the smooth operation of Twin Lakes. They work with administration, faculty, staff, and students to correlate unity within the school. Their demands are many—much of their time is spent working with students and their problems. They are also responsible for formulating, expanding, and improving the curriculum at Twin Lakes. Our co-pilots are also in charge of student activities and the many schedules for the entire school.

The student body and staff look upon the assistant principals as great "Co-Pilots".

Mr. Williams is the no. 2 man.

House Executives

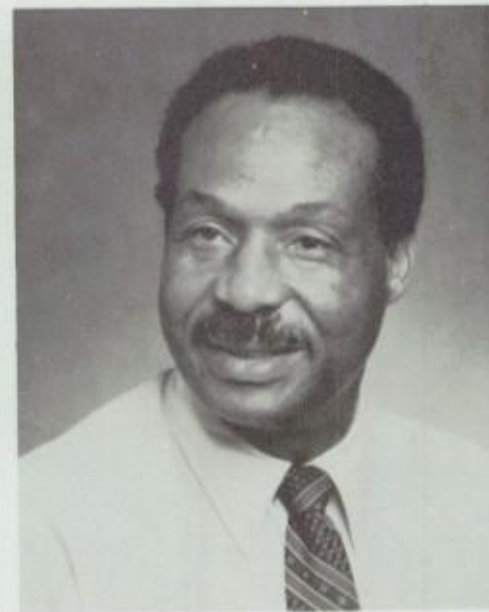

Our building principals are the mediators between school and home. They are directly concerned with the general welfare of the entire student body—no problem is too large or too small for them to become involved. They try very hard to know the students in their house, and to work with them as much as possible.

The building principals share a common goal; they keep the students' behavior the best at all times, and they enforce the attendance policy.

Our "House Executives" are the basis for another successful year.

Future Guides

Our guidance counselors perform their duties with enthusiasm and skill. They are directly concerned with helping students find professions and vocations that will help them find their place in our complex society. Students look to them for advice that will help them to meet the necessary requirements for graduation, and advice that will acquaint them with financial programs for advanced education.

Twin Lakes' "Future Guides" are a very important force at our school.

Record Keepers

The clerical staff is one of the most essential departments at Twin Lakes. The members of the staff performs faithfully and skillfully in carrying out their many duties.

Our record keepers are responsible for all of the paper work that is necessary for smooth operation of a large school. They believe that efficiency is the key word in helping them to be number one "Record Keepers".

Media Is The Message

The media center has two important functions. The first is to support the curriculum. The second is to provide resources for individual interests. Many people consider the media center to be the hub of the school, where materials such as books, filmstrips, tapes, records, periodicals, and other educational materials are made readily available. The staff is dedicated to serving the students and faculty of Twin Lakes.

English Experts

The English teachers offer the students a very extensive program in the basic skills of reading, writing, and listening. In addition to teaching the courses required for average students, there are honor courses that provide intensive training in reading comprehension and writing skills.

The reading lab is available to students who have problems and for students who want to become speed readers. Other electives that are offered to meet the needs and interests of the students include the debate center, drama workshop, photography darkroom, mass media video workshop, and the journalism and publications rooms.

Our "English Experts" have helped students to enrich their communications skills considerably.

Musical Engineers

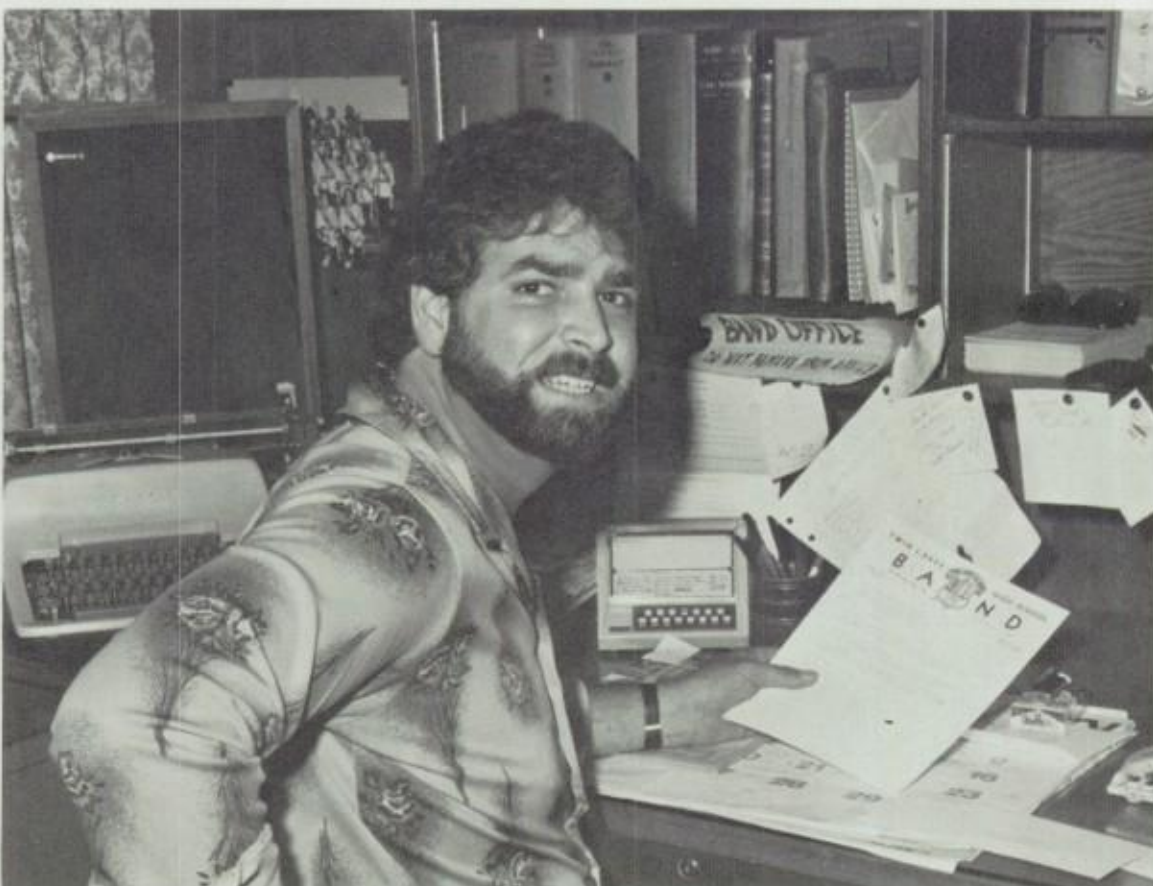

Music is a very essential part of our curriculum at Twin Lakes. The teachers are instrumental in trying to instruct many talented students with the precious art of the universal language. Courses for beginners, as well as advanced students, are offered.

Harmonious melodies enhance many gala events that are presented by our music department each year.

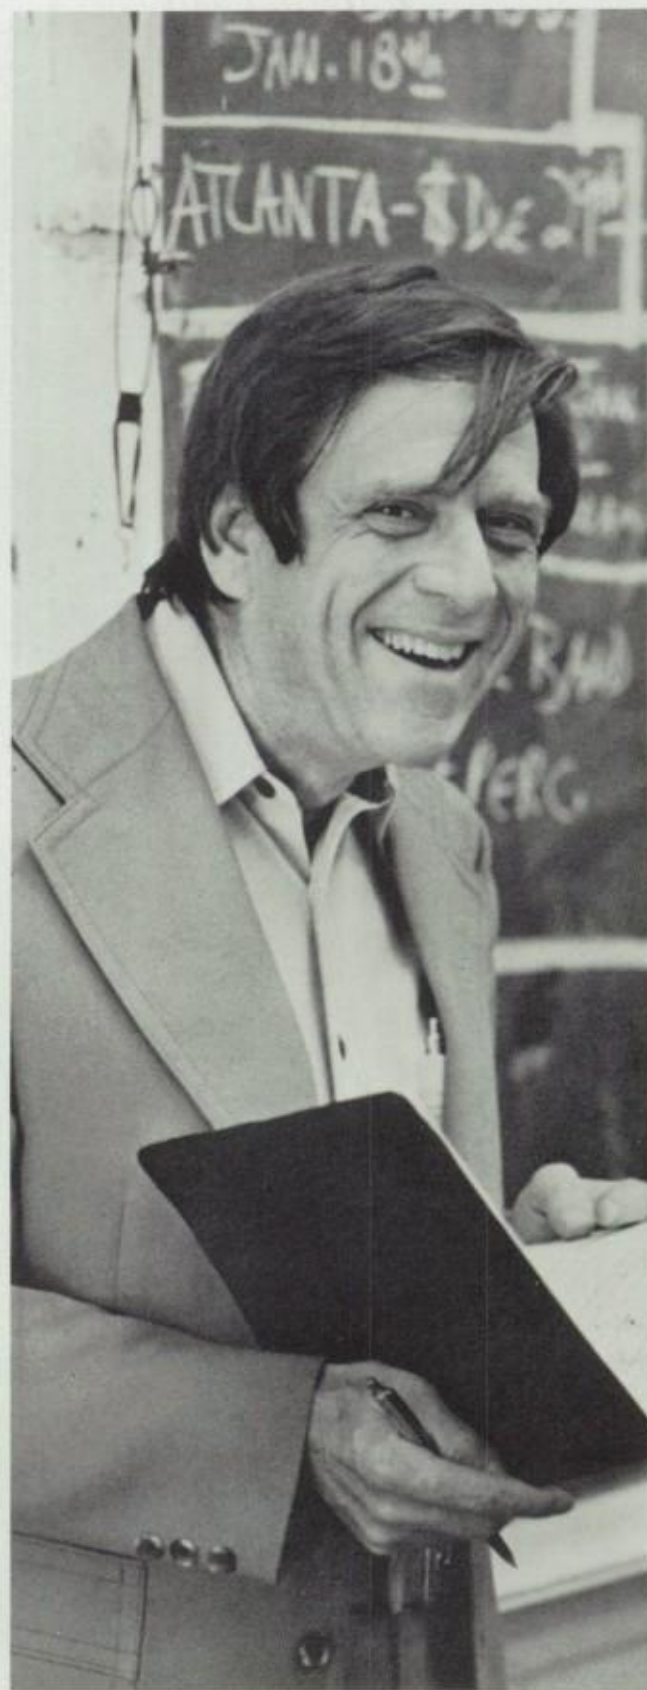

Through well planned practice sessions, our "Musical Engineers" help students to develop skills that are everlasting.

Ms. Carpenter keeps a close watch!

Mr. Earnhardt tries hard to smile.

Mr. Mucci is checking closely.

Math Challengers

Students have many opportunities to develop their minds and expand their knowledge in the field of mathematics. The teachers try to meet the needs of the students by offering a variety of courses—classes range from basic fundamentals to advanced placement for college preparation.

The "Math Challengers" try to help each student develop to his highest potential.

Past Informers

Social Studies is our link between the past and the present. Having a thorough knowledge of the past better enables the students to understand what is happening in the world today. Some of the courses examine the "American Way of Life", while others focus on the history of past events.

Our "Past Informers" try to teach courses that will provide a strong foundation for students so that they will think critically and reason deductively.

Life Examiners

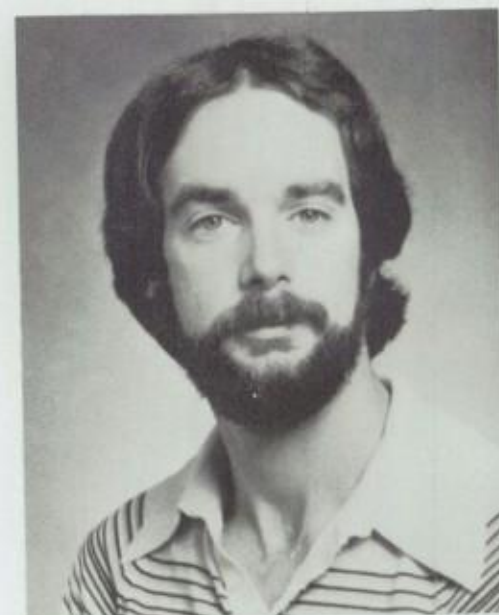

In this, the space age, science is stressed more than ever. Teachers provide students with a wide range of classes especially suited to meet the demands of those who are scientifically oriented, as well as the demands of those who want to study the basis of life through a general biology course.

Teachers and students perform many laboratory experiments, and teachers schedule interesting activities such as dissecting animals and classifying plants.

Language Consultants

Growth and enjoyment describe the students who are enrolled in a foreign language at Twin Lakes. Teachers strive to offer more than just a language; their objectives are to open the doors to a different culture and to broaden the horizons of opportunities for the students.

The language lab has become a "working lab" with dedicated advisors to help those who have a language problem, as well as those who take advanced courses. The sponsors believe that being able to speak a foreign language will help a student to understand the art, the music, and the theatre of people in another country.

Career Education gives the students a chance to learn and earn at the same time—they combine study hours with their jobs and receive credit for it.

Teachers try to expose students with the business world by involving them in different programs from which they may choose. Students feel that "on the job training" is one of the best methods of learning.

Perfect Helpers

Busy, inspired, and enthusiastic describe the teachers in the special education department. Their main goal is to help students who can not function in the regular classroom. Individual guidance is given with emphasis on reading, writing, and math. Many of these students are able to return to a regular classroom situation after a few months with this special training.

Young mothers or expecting mothers benefit from these special services. They are able to continue their education with very few, if any, deficiencies in their grades.

Teachers in the Alternative Education Program encourage students to follow all basic school rules. AEP gives the students the second chance that is sometimes needed for them to realize the seriousness of breaking the law.

Ecology Club Contributes To School

The purpose of the Ecology Club is to promote environmental concern, and to beautify their surroundings and their community. This year, with the support of their sponsors, Mr. Spears and Mr. Kopf, the members participated in car washes, sponsored a scavenger "clean-up" hunt at Spanish River, installed a side walk on campus, and invited the student body to accompany them on their field trip to Spanish River.

One of the reasons for the club's popularity is due to its hard work in trying to help the environment. Happiness to this group is a fresh clean world with lots of good friends to go with it.

Homes where living will be the expression of
Everything that is good and fair,

Cheerleaders Sparkled with Spirit

The Varsity Cheerleaders brought spirit among the students. Our girls managed to do that and much more. Led by their spirited advisor, Ms. Marsha King, this squad found time to perform such services as selling game ribbons and other pep items to the student body. Their cheering could be heard and seen at all football and basketball games.

Our cheerleaders did not necessarily have a pleasure cruise. Many of their after school hours were spent learning new complex routines, and many of their summer days were spent at cheering camp. The physical demands were great and the rewards few for these spirited girls, but as far as they were concerned, it was a small price to pay for holding such a coveted job.
